Bylaws Change Alert

The following changes to the Bylaws were recommended by the Board of Directors and approved by the membership attending the general business session of the Convention on June 19, 2009 in Las Vegas:

1. Article III, Section 2. The increase in membership fee for Rosebuds from $10 to $20 was delayed, to become effective December 31, 2010. (The increase had been mandated by action of the members attending the 2008 Convention in Baltimore.)

2. Article III, Section 1-E. The requirement for Auxiliary Members (Rivets) to attend one meeting prior to being accepted for membership was deleted.

3. Article III, Section 3. Allied members, Auxiliary members, and Honorary members are eligible to hold appointive office at the national level.

You might notice that now is a great time for Rosebuds and Rivets to join ARRA (Rosies, too, of course)! The Rosie membership fee is still just $10 for a lifetime membership. But join now for all your Rosebuds, too—daughters, granddaughters, great-granddaughters, and even great-great-granddaughters—for just $10 before the price increases to $20 next year. There is no charge for Rivets to join ARRA. For more information, see the membership application on page 6.

A Note from Our President

We have been notified that the following states have followed our recommendation to proclaim an annual Rosie the Riveter Day: Arizona, Wisconsin, Nebraska, and Connecticut. In addition, Texas and Montana indicated that they do not make such proclamations, but were honoring Rosies, anyway.

How about your state? Any member, and especially the State Director, in states that haven't proclaimed a Rosie the Riveter Day, might contact the Governor or a member of the Legislature with that proposal.

If you'd like, call our national 1-800 number (888-55-ROSIE, 888-557-6743) for suggestions. That could be a way to fill the "space in the puzzle" that only you can fill.

Wow! If You Weren't There, You Should Have Been!

Yep, the 2009 ARRA Convention, held in June of this year in Las Vegas, is now in the historical past—but it was also a “historical blast!”

Thanks to preparations made by Carol Peters, Convention Chair, and her onsite colleagues, Carmella Wood and her nephew, Julio Schembari, Jr., things went smoothly throughout. In addition to the program and business sessions in the hotel, there was an informative tour of nearby Nellis Air Force Base, home of the famed Thunderbirds, and a Broadway-type show, “Human Nature,” featuring non-stop “Motown Music” and choreography by a live-wire foursome from Australia. (In case you’re forgotten, Motown is a type of music that was born in the 1960’s in Detroit, the “Motor City.”) After the concert, one Rosie in her late 80’s was heard to remark, “I feel so young and invigorated, I feel like I ought to be taking birth control pills!”

ARRA members came from eleven states and two foreign countries, Canada and Sweden. Tentative plans call for us to meet in Nashville, Tennessee next year. So start making plans to come. Maybe you could even get a credit card sponsored by your favorite airline and start saving frequent flyer miles for the trip!

*Smiling Faces...
... Fun For All!*

For several years, ARRA held a poetry contest. Following is the First Place winning poem from the very first contest, held in 2001. It was written by Faith Lee of Nevada.

Women's Work

We watched the boys go marching off.

We heard the factories call.

We volunteered for any job,

Just any job at all.

They finally let us get to work;

They let us be a nurse.

They even let us sub for men,

And then the war got worse.

And now they let us ferry planes,

And be mechanics too.

We started doing heavy jobs

To see the country through.

We patched the planes; we made
the bombs;

We bucked the rivets too.

We did the jobs they'd said so long

That women couldn't do.

The US won the war all right

The boys came home (less a few)

And now again we stepped aside

From jobs we 'couldn't do'.

- Faith Lee

In Memoriam

Our Ohio ARRA State Director, Mary Tunnell Robinson Talley, expired on July 7, 2009, at the home of her son in Jackson, Mississippi. Mary had served as ARRA State Director for Mississippi for two years before moving to Ohio. During her eight-year tenure as State Director in Ohio, she helped to found two chapters, one in Dayton and one in Cincinnati. From her hospice bed, just a few days before she died, Mary filled out membership forms and wrote the check for four new ARRA members. Mary was the beloved sister of Fran Carter, ARRA Executive Director.

WHAT IS ARRA? The American Rosie the Riveter Association is an organization established to honor the contribution of women workers on the home front during World War II and to promote patriotism and responsibility among all Americans.

WHO MAY BELONG? Women whose work was designed to contribute to the war effort (including women who did volunteer work) and their female descendants are eligible for active membership. Spouses and male relatives may become auxiliary members.

Women in occupations today that, prior to World War II were considered to be "men's work" may join as 21st Century Rosies.

Women who performed the work are known as Rosies. Their female descendants are known as Rosebuds. Male auxiliary members are known as Rivets. A woman is eligible for membership as a Rosie if her work or volunteer services occurred during 1941-1945 and consisted of any one of the following:

1. Employment of any sort in an industry or government agency that was directly related to the war effort, or

2. Employment (or self-employment) in a capacity usually held by a man, thus releasing a man for military duty, or

3. Participation on a sustained basis in one or more volunteer activities related to the war effort.

Examples of qualifying work are: work in any capacity in a munitions plant, airplane manufacturing plant, shipyard, etc.; work for the Department of Defense, local rationing board, etc.; work as a truck driver, service station operator, etc.; independent work, such as farming; or volunteer work, such as collecting critical materials, rolling bandages, serving with USO or Red Cross, etc. Work that was customarily done by women and was not related to the war effort does not count.

From Mabel, the Treasurer... (...and Books/Products Manager)

Many thanks to all those who volunteered their help at the Sales and Registration tables at the Convention in Las Vegas. Jody Powers and Tricia Patterson, Roebuds from Arizona, did a great job at the Sales table. Betty Taylor, Rosebud from Georgia, and Happy Sargol, Rosie from Arizona, were a much-needed help at the Registration table. Carmella Wood, Rosie from Nevada, received and stored the books and products to be displayed or sold, then shipped back the “left-overs” after the Convention. Thank you, ladies, for a job well done!

We have some new names to add to our “Friends of Libraries” participants. The following two members have recently ordered books to be sent to local libraries: Joyce Croker of La Habra, CA (set of three books to Lompoc, CA Public Library); and Donna Childs of Henderson, NV (two sets—eight books total—to Green Valley Library in Henderson).

Remember, we have special pricing for books that are mailed directly to libraries—$12 each for any of the three story books, $15 for the cookbook, or the complete set of four books for $51. You can use the order form on page 5, but be sure to indicate that it is a gift from you to the library, and include the library’s shipping address.

Postman Delivers Letters & Love

Rosebud and new ARRA member Evelyn Boozer tells us about the wartime romance of her parents. Her mother, Elizabeth Morgan, was working at a garment factory in Birmingham, Alabama, making military uniforms. Little did she know that her co-workers had written her name and address on a piece of paper and slipped it into one of the uniform pockets.

Meanwhile, a young soldier named George Fitzgerald from New York state was serving in France. When he reached into the pocket of his new uniform, he found that piece of paper and decided to write to Elizabeth. Imagine her surprise when she received his letter! She sent him a return letter, and the two of them continued to write throughout the war.

When the war ended, George went home to New York to visit his family, but it wasn't long before he was on his way to Alabama to meet Elizabeth. After a time of courtship, the two were married and had many happy years together as they raised five daughters in Alabama, of which Evelyn is the third.

And it all started with some mischievous friends and a single letter!

Note: In most cases, only one copy of the Mail Call is being sent to each household, so we hope you'll let everyone read it before you file it away. If you get more than one copy, how about sending one to a friend, especially a prospective member?

Honey Fudge Cake

Many Rosies remember when sugar and other items were rationed during WW II, and creativity made up for items that were hard to get. This typical recipe from the war years uses honey instead of sugar.

Sift together:

- 2 c. cake flour
- ½ c. cocoa
- 1½ tsp. baking soda
- ½ tsp. salt

Place these ingredients together in mixer and mix well:

- ½ c. shortening
- 2/3 c. water
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 1½ c. honey
- 2 unbeaten eggs

Sift dry ingredients into liquid. Bake at 350° to 375°.

Note: This recipe was included in the Rosie the Riveter Celebration Cookbook by Rosie Lela McDaniel of Virginia. To find more great recipes from the war years and later years, as well as stories written by Rosies about their work, order your own copy of this special cookbook using the order form on page 5!
