70th Anniversary

Commemorative Edition

Celebrating the 70th Anniversary of the End of World War II

The weekend of August 14-15, 2015 marked 70 years since V-J (Victory Over Japan) Day—that is, the day when the long years of World War II fighting ceased. Though the actual signing of the treaty would not take place until September 2, most people who lived through that time remember August 14-15 as the real time of celebration. Fighting in the European Theater had already ceased with V-E (Victory in Europe) Day, May 8, 1945, and when Japan followed with their surrender in August, the war was virtually over.

Rosie the Riveter's voice is often the first and loudest to thank the veterans for their selfless service. Rosie's job during the war was to support the troops and give "the boys" whatever they needed to win the war and come on back home. In retrospect, however, we can see what a valuable contribution the working women of WW II made, as well, and we thank both veterans and Rosies of the Greatest Generation for their parts in preserving our precious freedoms.

In this edition, we will report on the many and varied ways that towns, communities and families across the U. S. have commemorated this extraordinary 70th anniversary with "Rosie Rallies" and more. And oh my, how they celebrated! Rock on, Rosies, you are still doing it! - Nell Branum, editor

Stacks of letters—now on their way!

Rosies Rally 'Round the Troops!

ARRA's 70th Anniversary National Project of writing letters to currently deployed troops

Sharing smiles with the troops!

Many, many thanks to all those who wrote letters to our currently deployed troops! Cards and letters came pouring in from 21 states and from all ages—from ARRA Chapters, school groups, community events, churches, senior facilities, individual Rosies, and others who took the time to write letters. And every single letter, card, and drawing is now making its way to a Soldier, Sailor, Marine, or Airman who is currently deployed in the defense of our country.

Operation Gratitude, a non-profit organization based in Van Nuys, California (www.operationgratitude.org), is our partner in getting these letters to the troops. OG sends care packages to troops containing snacks, DVD's and more—and each package contains several letters. And the letters are the favorite items in the packages. Carolyn Blashek, Founder of Operation Gratitude, sends her thanks to ARRA: "This is so wonderful!!! Thank you for your efforts and enthusiasm and for engaging so many great Americans in this project. There is no doubt you will be creating many, many smiles on our heroes' faces." If you would like to see a video of soldiers' telling how much letters from home mean to them, search YouTube for "Operation Gratitude."

And it's not too late to get in on the joy! We are still working to make our goal, so if you would like to send a card or letter, simply begin with "Dear Hero." Express your thanks for his/her service. Mail to Rosies Rally 'Round the Troops, P. O. Box #1, Fultondale, AL 35068. We'll send them on!

Atlanta Remembers

In April, 2015, the Atlanta, GA ARRA Chapter hosted a 70th Anniversary kick-off event with the Spirit of '45 organization when Chancellor Bruce Heilman, a WW II veteran, stopped by on a cross-country motorcycle ride. On August 15, the Chapter sponsored a remembrance event at the Gwinnett County Fallen Heroes Memorial in Lawrenceville. ARRA National President Jean Ousley and others wore red bandanas and work shirts in honor of Rosies, and 96-year-old Rosie Jessie Moss told how she worked on B-29's at the Bell Bomber factory. The Gwinnett Daily Post was on hand to cover the story.

Colorado Spirit

Rosebuds (and a faithful Rivet) had a great time setting up a booth and walking in the Wheat Ridge, CO Carnation Festival to honor Rosies and veterans. They especially waved at Rosies in the crowd. Rosebud Jo Ann Fisher (right), who organized the event, reports that many people came to them to share their family Rosie stories.

Spreading the Rosie message!

Rosies Rally in Oregon

In July, 2015, Rosies Dolly Marshall, Doris Graham, Rozella Mock, Alice Heiney, Lorette Wedlake, and Opal Nelson found seats on hay bales in the back of a pick-up truck for the Bohemia Mining Days Parade in Cottage Grove, OR. Rivet Darrell Willis drove the truck and Rosebuds Yvonne Fasold, Dawn Witteveen, and Dawn's granddaughter, Riley (a Rosebud 3) walked behind. Spectators were enthusiastic!

In August, Rosies and friends from the McKenzie, OR ARRA Chapter joined with the Spirit of '45 organization to celebrate the 70th Anniversary with a tribute, wreath ceremony, a concert by the 234th Army Band, and "The Andrews Sisters."

Celebrating with Friends

Rosie Ruth Mustion of Deer Park, TX was a rural farm girl from Howell County, Missouri when she traded in her hoe for a rivet gun and went to work at Boeing in Wichita, KS. On Saturday, August 15, 2015, on the occasion of her 90th birthday, friends and family members gathered to honor Ruth. Her daughter, Rosebud Debbie Yancey, tells us that they celebrated her Rosie years, the war ending, and her life until the present. They shared memories and sang favorite songs, and The Pasadena Citizen newspaper carried Ruth's story.

Rosie Day in New York

The Greene County, NY Department of Human Services and the county Veterans Service Agency hosted a Rosie the Riveter Day on August 29, 2015 at the Historic Catskill Point and Freightmaster's Building. The event was organized by Tami Bone and inspired by Rivet Ed Bloomer, whose mother, Rosie Irene Bloomer, was one of the first five women hired in DeWitt Yard for NY Central Railroad. There was a USO-type show and dance, a sing-along, a Rosie look-alike contest, exhibits by many military-related organizations, a Doughnut Dolly station, and more—a great community celebration!

Richmond's Rosie Rally

These ladies were spotted at a rest stop by Rosebud Yvonne Fasold's grandson, as they made their way from Oregon to Richmond.

On August 15, 2015, Rosies and Rosie Look-Alikes gathered at the Rosie the Riveter World War II Home Front National Historical Park in Richmond, CA in a big way! Their goal was to break the existing Guinness World Record for the largest gathering of people dressed as Rosie the Riveter, which was 776, set in March, 2014 in Ypsilanti, MI. Participants of all ages, from age 97 to two months, flocked to Richmond. They enjoyed speeches from the City Manager and park representatives, as well as musical entertainment, the unveiling of a new Rosie sculpture from artist Seward Johnson, and hearing stories from Rosies. And break the record they did! The official record is now 1,084! Congratulations to all!

Celebrations in Baltimore

The Baltimore, MD ARRA Chapter held a Rosie look-alike event at the Glenn L. Martin Aviation Museum in May, 2015, with attendees from MD, PA, and VA (below). Glenn

Martin was the first industrial employer to hire women for an industrial assembly line, and Rosie Alice Podolsky was the first woman hired by that company in August, 1941. Alice's grandson, Rivet Tom Klein who is a teacher, and his students came dressed as Rosies for the day. Presenting the Rosies and veterans with a special honor was the Comptroller of Maryland Peter Franchot, son of a Rosie and a WWII veteran. The Chapter also attended a Spirit of '45 anniversary event on August 15, 2015 presented by the museum (below). Rosies were joined by WW II veterans from 90 to 99 years old, including a WASP and a WAVE. And Rosies attended an event on board the SS John Brown Liberty Ship, arriving by limousine. Veterans and Rosies were honored, then given a special performance of "Abbott and Costello." Chapter Coordinator Debi Wynn has created a one-hour musical entitled "Rosie" that was performed in April for the anniversary and is available to travel. The Chapter is also working on a documentary about their Rosies.

Kansas City's Rosies

On July 11, 2015, Rosies were honored at the Harry S. Truman Library and Museum in Kansas City, MO. Eighteen

Rosies (left) were present to meet and answer questions for the standing-room-only crowd, which was double the museum's usual Saturday attendance. Organized by Rosebud Jody Valet, who is ARRA's National Treasurer, the event included the premiere of a new documentary entitled We Can Do It: Stories of Rosie the Riveter, which includes interviews with eight local Rosies. The event was hosted by "President Harry S. Truman" (right), and members of the Heart of America Chapter of the Tuskegee Airmen on hand to seat the Rosies. "President Truman" read a proclamation from the Mayor of Independence, MO, and author and documentary director Terence O'Malley spoke. A display gave Rosie information, and a slide show portrayed local Rosies in the 1940's. The Mayor of Kansas City wrote an individual proclamation to each Rosie, thanking her for her service.

Tribute in Texas

On August 15, 2015, Rosies Deedee Favro of Houston, TX and Pat Golson of San Marcos, TX were honored, along with several WW II veterans, at a Spirit of '45 Celebration. Rosebud Carol Peters of the Central Texas ARRA Chapter reports that the event took place at the San Marcos Airport Commemorative Air Force Hangar, and featured a flyover of WW II planes, tours of the WW II Museum that included a Rosie display, and an ARRA information and book sales booth. The program to honor the Rosies and veterans included State Representative John Cyrier and San Marcos City Councilman and Veterans Affairs Director Jude Prather. More than 1,000 people from around the state attended the event.

Facebook contest.

Two Family Celebrations

In 1945, Nona McLemore Penner was riveting airplane bulkheads at Tinker Air Base in Oklahoma. In April, 2015, Nona's family and friends gathered to celebrate her 90th birthday with a Rosie the Riveter theme. On August 29, 2015 at a McLemore family reunion, Bob McCormick of the Quilts of Valor organization (www.qovf.org) presented quilts to Nona's brother, cousin, and son-

Nona with her great-grandson, Eric in-law for their military service. Nona was expecting this, as she had been working to make it happen. What she wasn't expecting was that, in an unusual presentation, a quilt would be given to her, as well!

Boston Commemorates

On August 11, 2015, Rosie look-alikes gathered for a contest at Battleship Cove and the USS Massachusetts battleship in Fall River, MA. Rosie Bertha Glavin, President of the Massachusetts Bay ARRA Chapter, shared her experiences, then served as judge to choose winners in youth and adult categories. Bertha's sister, Rosie Mary Kennedy, worked as a welder in Quincy, MA, where the Massachusetts was built.

Rosie Bertha with honored veterans

On August 16, 2015, Bertha and Mary joined with others at the John F. Kennedy Presidential Library in Dorchester to host a wreath-laying ceremony as part of a Global Tribute happening around the world that weekend. Bertha welcomed the crowd, recalling the celebrations of the war's end and the work of Rosies. WW II veterans shared remembrances.

Sharing the Rosie Legacy

At 17, Rosie Mae Krier of PA was working as a riveter of B-17's at Boeing in Seattle, WA. On August 15, 2015, Mae celebrated the 70th anniversary of the war's end on board the Battleship New Jersey in Camden, with a tour, dinner, and Big Band dance. Many people asked about her Rosie story. Mae is also celebrating by staying busy as an advocate for the Rosie legacy, speaking at a West Point Conference and a local Marines/Police event, participating in an Honor Flight to Washington, D. C., and being featured in an upcoming edition of USA Today. Mae has also been working closely with her Congressman to promote a House of Representatives bill that would proclaim a National Rosie the Riveter Day.

Honoring a Rosie

During WW II, Rosie Ina Cordela McAninch of Wichita Falls, Texas was welding ships in Corpus Christi and sewing uniforms. In August, 2015, 99-year-old Ina was honored for her service at the Brookdale Senior Living Center, where she lives. Ina recently joined ARRA, and friends, family, and members of the Brookdale staff—all waving American flags and dressed as Rosie in tribute—presented Ina with her ARRA membership certificate on the happy day. The Wichita Falls Times Record News covered the event in an article. Ina was heard to say, “I feel honored to be honored. And I still feel like I could do it!”

Rally in Rochester Hills, MI

More than 50 people gathered for a Rosie Rally in Rochester Hills, MI on August 15, 2015. Some even attended from Canada. There were Rosies, Rosie Look-Alikes, and Rosie Stand-Ins present. The oldest Rosie was 96 years old, and the youngest Rosie Look-Alike was seven months old.

Rosie Stand-Ins were women who “stood in” for real Rosies not present. They wore white signs bearing the name of their Rosie, along with her story, provided by former National ARRA President Donnaleen Lanktree. These stories started lots of interesting and informative conversations!

Everyone had the Rosie spirit!

A Family of Support

Rosie Ruth Pierson Webb of MI worked as a riveter at the Willow Run Bomber Plant from 1942 until the end of production. Now at age 95, she has participated in activities to help save the Willow Run plant from being torn down so it can be preserved as a museum.

Ruth’s son, Rivet Robert Webb, also let us know that Ruth’s great-grandchildren made their own wagon float and pulled it more than a mile on a hot day for the Westland Memorial Day Parade, telling the crowd along the route all about their great-grandmother and the Willow Run plant. And they won third place in the junior division! Congratulations, girls!

Rosie On Parade

In 1941, Rosie Betty Matousek Dmytryk of GA started working in Cleveland, OH making small airplane parts for the war effort. Betty’s friend, Marilyn Little, let us know that on August 1, 2015, 96-year-old Betty rode in a restored 1941 Cadillac convertible in the 63rd annual Old Soldiers Day Parade in Alpharetta, GA. She was recognized and thanked for her contribution to WW II. We thank you, too, Betty!

Good Times in Sun City

The Sun City, AZ ARRA Chapter celebrated the signing of the end of World War II by having lunch together at the Royal Café, listening to guest speakers who served during the Viet Nam and Korean wars, and writing cards to service men and women overseas.

Keep the Spirit of '45 Alive!

One of our partner organizations, the Spirit of '45 coalition (www.spiritof45.org), under the direction of National Supervisor Warren Hegg, worked tirelessly to create opportunities for 70th Anniversary celebrations. Networked activities included a reenactment of the famous V-J Day Kiss photo in Times Square, an around-the-world wreath-laying tribute at veterans cemeteries worldwide, and many more celebrations at multiple locations. This page of their website gives a state-by-state report of what happened near you. Check it out at http://www.spiritof45.org/participating_member_1.aspx.
